

Armed Forces

Army PFC Johnny M. Sampson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Sampson, 25116 Frampton Ave., Harbor City, graduated from the Third Infantry Division, Non-Commissioned Officers Academy in Wurtsburg, Germany, April 22. PFC Sampson, 24, graduated from Narbonne High School in 1954, and from Harbor College. He entered the army in 1960 and arrived overseas in October.

Army PFC Barry L. Williby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Williby, 1630 W. 266th St., recently participated with other personnel from the 8th Division's 16th Infantry in a special NATO "attack" exercise near Baumholder, Germany. The exercise was designed to demonstrate the combat potential of units from three NATO nations operating as a single task force. This force, under the control of a French commander, consisted of units from Germany, France and the U.S.

An automatic rifleman in the infantry's Company A in Baumholder, Williby entered the Army in February 1960, completed basic training at Fort Ord, and arrived overseas last July.

The 19-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Narbonne High School. Eleven weeks of rugged training drew to a close, May 17, as new marines passed in review at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. Among those to be assigned to the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn., for basic training was Marine Pvt. Robert A. Kahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Kahl of 18002 Bailey Dr.

Theodore E. Unander, commissaryman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Unander of 1536 1/2 W. 226th St., was promoted, May 16, while serving aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Henry W. Tucker operating in the Western Pacific.

He received the promotion by successfully competing in Navy-wide examinations for advancement in rate. Before entering the service in January 1959, he was graduated from Narbonne High School.

Army Pvt. Jerome D. Thornell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Thornell, 18314 Avis Ave., and Jerry L. Hurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hurst, 18817 Crenshaw, recently completed eight weeks of military police training at the Provost Marshal General's School, Ft. Gordon, Ga. They received training in self-defense, traffic control, and basic procedures of civil and military law.

Hurst, 18, and Thornell, 18, entered the Army last January. Both are graduates of North High and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

Army Pvt. Charles F. Burmester, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burmester, 22529 S. Figueroa, was assigned to Headquarters Company at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., May 26.

Fort Leavenworth is the home of the Army Command and General Staff College. The college, the Army's senior tactical school, was established in 1891 as the School of Application of Infantry and Cavalry. Burmester, a driver in the company, entered the Army last February and completed basic training at Fort Ord. He is a 1957 graduate of Banning High School and was employed by Sears, Roebuck and Company in Torrance before entering the Army.

Army Sgt. George L. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Lee, 3106 Spencer St., recently participated with other personnel from the 8th Infantry Division's 8th Cavalry in a three-week tour of border patrol duty in the Fulda Gap near Bad Hersfeld, Germany. During this patrol duty members of the 8th Cavalry received on-the-job training in border operations from personnel from the 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment's Troop C. The 14th regularly patrols the gap, a 100-mile segment of the Iron Curtain which serves as the gateway to Berlin.

Sergeant Lee, a fire team leader in the 8th's Troop B which is regularly located in Sandhofen, entered the Army in 1947 and arrived overseas on this tour of duty last December.

His wife, Luella, is with him in Germany.

Army Reserve Maj. Mark A. Forgette, whose wife, Marjorie, lives at 317 S. Prospect Ave., Park Ridge, Ill., is receiving two weeks of annual active duty training at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. The training is scheduled to be concluded June 18.

Major Forgette, son of Mrs. Helen C. Forgette, Lomita, is a graduate of Duluth (Minn.) Cathedral High School. He was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1938.

Sgt. 1st Class Burton E. Eichel Jr., 33, whose wife, Makiko, lives at 1014 S. Spicer

THE TORRANCE HERALD

Street, recently participated in the annual Army Air Defense Command's Small arms tournament at Fort Carson, Colo. Over 150 competitors, including personnel from Army Nike guided missile sites across the nation, U.S. Army Force teams and civilian marksmen from the Rocky Mountain area, took part in the tourney. Sergeant Eichel participated in the pistol competition in the matches. He is assigned as operations sergeant in Headquarters Battery of the 12th Artillery Group in Pasadena. The sergeant entered the Army in 1945. He attended Hurley (S. D.) High School.

Army Specialist Five Bernardo M. Mendoza, 24, whose wife, Josephine, lives at 1081 W. 256th St., Harbor City, recently arrived in Greenland and is now a member of the 55th Artillery, a Nike-Hercules missile unit at Thule Air Force Base.

A rocket launcher crewman in the artillery's Battery C, Specialist Mendoza entered the Army in April 1956.

He is a 1954 graduate of Artesia (N. M.) High School. His father, Manuel Mendoza, lives in Pyote, Tex.
